Urgent help needed

Love is missing from this world

He is as old as this world and is getting weak because of the environment. He was last seen with his friend Kindness. Since his absence, Hate is spreading Selfishness in the world and Sincerity is striving to stop it. Considering this, Friendship had a confrontation with Animosity, as it is spreading like weeds. Happiness is becoming rare. Sorrows are scattered everywhere. Hope is not helping either, as he is grieving the absence of Love. Cruelty has its claws all over since Compassion lost its impact. Doubts are running free because Faith is not resisting against it. Reprehension is creating disturbance due to the lack of Forgiveness. Clouds of Agony are in the sky and thirst for Pleasure is increasing.

His mother Patience and father Generosity are pleading for his safe return. His sister Modesty and brother Courtesy have cried their eyes out. All Humanity is heartbroken in his absence. Peace and Tranquility are urging him to be Courteous and come home. Please come back, we all feel Astray without you. We love you LOVE, and miss you a lot.
