Other information and instructions

As soon as life is conceived in a mother's womb, the date and time of departure from this world is confirmed with absolutely no changes or contingency plans. Be ready and prepared at all times. Angels will come to take you at the confirmed time. There will be absolutely no change in Allah's (God's) plan. As your departing time approaches you will experience a shortage of oxygen, and soon there will be no need for it at all. Your loved ones and those near to you will be sad as they won't see you in this world anymore but will come to wish you a safe, happy and rewarding journey. They will prepare you for this phenomenal migration from this transitory place to your immortal destination. They will gently carry you on their shoulders toward your final resting place in this world, the grave. From here the doors of the world will close and the gateway to the divine destination will open.

To have a safe and successful journey follow these instructions in this worldly life.

- ❖ Live your life according to the divine laws of your Creator. You will find them in His last and final message to mankind, The Holy Quran.
- ❖ Everything comes from your Creator, so always remember to thank Him.
- ❖ While living in this world don't forget why we were sent here.
- ❖ Protect yourself from the temptations of Satan, your worst enemy.
- ❖ Be aware of the rights of others. You will be held responsible for your actions.
- ❖ Keep away from harmful things such as lying, backbiting, jealousy, cheating, and stealing as they are the hindrance to entering heaven.

- ❖ Follow the designated right way, don't take man-made detours.
- ❖ Regularly repent towards your Creator and ask for His forgiveness.
- ❖ Be very punctual in offering obligatory prayers. Also, try to do some optional voluntary prayers.
- ❖ Earn your livelihood honestly, and spend in charity too.

MAY WE ALL HAVE A HONORABLE JOURNEY AND HEAVEN BE OUR DESTINATION.

AMEEN!
